Snow Emergency

Glenwood, Iowa (December 29th 2020) – The Honorable Mayor Ron Kohn has proclaimed a snow emergency for the City of Glenwood, to be in effect from 6 pm on Tuesday the 29th 2020. With this proclamation no person shall park, abandon or leave unattended any vehicle on any public street or City-owned parking lot, other than designated overnight parking areas. The snow emergency parking ban shall continue from its proclamation until the snow ceases and the roads are plowed.

In addition City Hall and the Glenwood Public Library will be closed starting at 12pm on the 29th 2020, due to the inclement weather conditions.
